

Welcome

to your #WRUPC

The Ryerson Association of Planning Students (RAPS) and the Waterloo Planning Student Association (PSA) are pleased to welcome planning students to our 3rd annual Waterloo/Ryerson Undergraduate Planning Conference.

WRUPC 2016

AGENDA

Friday, January 29th, 2016

5:00-9:00 pm

Pub Welcome Night at the Ram in the Rye

Saturday, January 30th, 2016

9:30 - 10:30am

Registration and Breakfast

Opening remarks by RAPS Presidents, Jordan McLeod and Nikolas Koschany at 10:15.

Remarks by SURP Director, Christopher DeSousa at 10:20.

10:30 - 11:15am

Dr. Mattias Sweet presents Is Big Data a Big Deal? Exploring Congestion to Inform Policy in the GTA.

11:15am - 12:00pm

Dr. Cecilia Zhuang presents Placemaking Practices in Suburban Ethnic Clusters Across the GTA.

12:00 - 2:00pm

Walking tours are lead by -

Dr. Mitchell Kosny - Regent Park

Diana Parsons and Seanna Irvine - Evergreen Brick Works

Greg Smith - Path System

2:00 - 3:00 pm

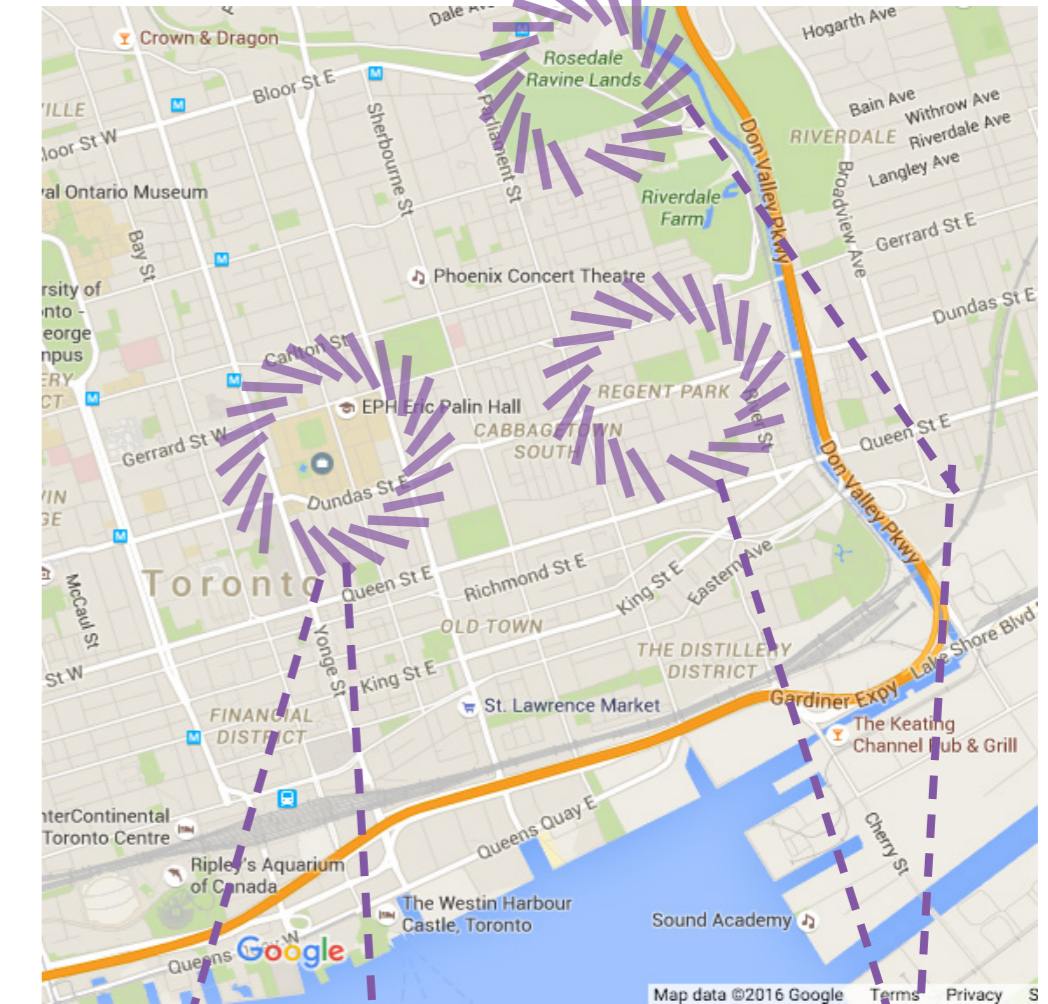

Treat yourself to lunch on the town, then head back to Ryerson

3:00 - 4:00 pm

David Cooper leads a seminar on how to get a planning job, and key lessons from the first five years in the field post graduation

4:00 - 5:00 pm

Planning Jeopardy

105 Bond Street

Also known as SBB or SURP HQ, 105 Bond is where we'll meet for sign-in, breakfast, and seminar sessions. This is also a good place to meet with people before setting out on one of the planned walking tours.

Ram in the Rye

On Friday night, this is where we'll meet to warm up before the big day. Enter from the west side of Church St, just south of Gould St. Lughtread pints are $6. You're welcome.

Walking Tours

Regent Park. Evergreen Brickworks. Destinations are subject to change, but this map might come in handy for taking notes on places of interest you find during your tours.